

I support the removal of the morse code requirement as expeditiously as possible.

The maintenance of morse proficiency tests as a requirement for any amateur radio license is no longer in accord with the purpose of the amateur radio Service and serves no legitimate regulatory purpose.

Thank You, Mike